WASHINGTON.

THE RUSSIAN TREATY.

by TRIEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUPS.
WASHINGTON, Sunday, April 7, 1667. It cannot be denied that the chances of the ratification of the Esquimaux Acquisition Treaty, which were utterly desperate when it was presented to the Senate, improve daily. Mr. Seward is engineering with all his personal influence and the influence of his Department to win the vote of the Senate, and to create a public opinion that shall justify and sustain that vote. He has already procured a spontaneous approval of the treaty from Gens. Halleck, and Meigs, and from Com. Rodgers, and employed the machinery of the Associated Press to disseminate them through the country. He is known to be stimulating a similar expression of opinion and similar demands for the acquisition of this territory of ice, snow, and rock, PA New-York and other large cities. Among the forthcoming letters congratulating the Secretary upon his statesmanlike negotiations, and urging the Scente to approve and adopt it, is said to be an earnest one from Peter Cooper. When put upon the wires to create problic opinion, it may be accompanied by others from equally eminent New-Yorkers, but the Secretary's stimnius to voluntary approval and spontascous demand is especially applied to the residents on the Pacific slope. It is understood here that on Thursday be sent a telegram of nearly 1,000 words, at acost to the Government of 75 cents a word, to persons in California and other States. to work up forthwith a general Western approval of his Russian treaty and a demand for its ratification, and also to furnish him with new facts and considerations of a commercial, industrial, and military character to be used in favor of the treety. In the meantime two machines for the manufacture of influence are kept actively at work here swen the members of the Senate; the first is the Secretary's elimer-parties, the second is the regular Washington Isobby, recessoreed by some most skilfull graduates of Albany Institute. It is fact, and a very suggestive one, that a cless of men who never south a public measure in which there is not mency are eager for the acquisition of the Russian ice and Esquimarx, and hungry to have seven millions and a helf to gold paid for it to whom? Mr. Seward's dionier-table is sprord regularly with roast treaty, boiled treaty, threaty in bottles, treaty in decanters, treaty; garnished with appointments to office, treaty in statistics, freaty in a military point of view, reaty in a territorial grandour view, treaty clad in furs ornamerted with walrus-teeth, fringed with timber, and floquing with fish. At these dinners the seren millions and a half in gold are reated by the Secretary with the light and playful carelessne's which has alwrys characterized his expenditu e of other people's money. The is in the habit of citing the payment, within the last weer, of over stwo hundred millions of the national debt, to skow that this Iti le purchasesmency for the ice and Est timaux weald be but a twopenny expendit re that the people wouldn't miss, wouldn't know areathing about when they come to pay their taxes. The influence of these Russian tree y dinner parties can be measured from day to day. Senstors can be named who were positively against tibe treaty when its was sent to the Senate, and who now when anterrogated I alf apologetically confess their pur pose to vote for it. In aid of them, the mann factures f the evidence that the whole counple's money, likewise against its will. Later-Since the foregoing was telegraphed the "Escuimanx Ming" gave out that Mr. Seward has finished his capwass of the Senate, and that the treaty will be mushed to a wate on Wednesday next. It has a'so become known That Russa would at anytime for years past have been very glad to get rid of her icy American elesert for two millions of weatles, equivalent to $400,000. It likewise flecks sout that a sort of reciprocity treaty betseen Great Britain and Rossia coves the derritory to be seded to us; and platef we take the ice, rocks and Esquimany we take these mortgaged with a British gigh to hunt, trade, and fish over the country and a its syster; that we shall get for the fafty willions of roubles we are to pay only the legal title to, and political jurisdiction aver, a wilderness whose polar game and fish, constitute its only possible vaire, which the British Hudson's Bay Company now has an equal right to with the Russians, and will hereafter have an equal right so with us. The unprecedented and suspicions terry to get this treaty through the Senate, without letting the people see its terms, is now explained. If it was published it would he killed stone dead. Baron Stoeckel's extrasadinary auxiety to have it confirmed and ratifici is natural. Promotion, decorations, and a grerous share of the price of the worthless resion he shall have the art and good luck to sell, surely await his success. Mr. Seward seeks to improve his wretched political position by getting upon an acquisition of territory, utterly valueless though it be, and purchased at a price tewenty-five times greater than the sum he could have bought it for. But there are men in the United States Senate who are not willing to take ten millions of dollars out of our oveburdened Treasury to purchase for the Secretary of State the questionable distinction of buying a vast uninhabitable desert with which to cover the thousand mortifications and defeats which have punished his pilotage of Andrew Johnson through his shipwrecked policy of Reconstruction. These faithful Senators can defeat this treaty.

CONFIRMATIONS AND REJECTIONS. It is the intention of those who are opposed to Ronsseau's confirmation to call up his case to-morrow and endeavor to get the vote whereby he was confirmed, reconsidered. It is very doubtful whether they will be able to accomplish it, as he is strong'y supported by Gov. Morton, Gen. Nye, and Gen. Caneron. There is an intense feeling throughout the Regular Army officers hereabouts against his confirmation, on the ground that there are more deserving men even in the volunteers. The Regular dicers declare there are many who rose to greater distinc-Jion in generalship, now occupying subordinate posi-Pions in the army, who are entitled to it from their long and faithful services, dating in some cases as far back as 30 years. The fight is an interesting one, and excites much discussion. The office is considered the most 'nerative and important it being a life position-of any which has been preented during the past Vinter.

A motion was entered on Saturday to reconsider the vote in the case of ex-Senator Nesmith, who was rejected for the Austrian Mission. As Mr. Nesmith was not an applicant for the position, and would not, it is stated, have accepted it if confirmed, being already on his way to Oregon, the action of the Scuate, it is deemed by his friends, places an unjust odium upon him, and they hope finally to obtain his confirmation merely as a personal compliment.

Most of the time of the Executive Session of Saturday was consumed in discussing contested cases, and but few confirmations were made. The case of Mt. Goodwin, Collector of the Pest of Philadelphia, was called up and discussed, and would have been rejected but for the absence of Gen. Cameron, who left a request that it should not be disposed of with he

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS IN ARIZONA.

San Francisco, April 6 .- Late advices received from Arizona Territory report great damage by the floods. Arizona City has been inundated, and several houses washed away. The Apache Indians had attacked the men in charge of the Mourey mine, killed one and wounded several. Oscar Buckalew, nephew of United States Senator Buckalew, was dangerously wounded. Five Indians were killed and a number wounded. The savages were well armed with guns and rifles.

THE REPORTED MASSACRE AT FORT BUFORD. Sr. Louis, April 6 .- Additional evidence that the reported massacre at Fort Baford is unfounded, has been eccived here in the shape of letters from Fort Rice. dated Feb. 25, which make no mention of Mrs. Col. Rankin having arrived there, as was represented in a letter published in Philadelphia. Gen Sherman has a letter from Rankin of a date subsequent to the time the massa-cre is said to have been committed.

THE WORK OF THE SESSION-THE CROSS-TOWN RAIL ROAD BILL-WIDENING OF STREETS-THE SOCIAL EVIL-BILLS SIGNED BY THE GOVERNOR.

ALBANY, April 7, 1807. One of the leaders of the dominant party in the ast Legislature was occasionally in the habit of telling his adherents, "Boys, we have been on the make long enough; now let us go in for some public measure de manded by the people; we must do this if we want to save our own reputation and that of the Legislature." To the credit of that Legislature, let it be said, that in many instances the advice was heeded, and some good bills were sandwicked through the Legislature, between some very bad ones. Why has not some equally sagnerous member given such a warning as this to the present Legislature t To follow such advice would ereditable, we this present body, and entitle it more thanks, especially from the people of New York City, than falls to its share up to the present time. THE REPORT OF ESCOBEDO'S DEPEAT NOT CON-FIRMED-SORTIE OF THE IMPERIALISTS FROM QUERETARO-THEY ARE REPULSED.

BY TRIEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. GALVESTON, April 6 .- Reports have been received of Escobedo's defeat by the Imperialists. The latter, on the contrary, continued to be besieged at Oueretaro. On the 22d of March they made a sortic in the direction of Celaya, hoping to capture a provision train of the Liberals, but they were driven back after five hours' hard fighting. Both armies had received some reënforcements, but the Liberal army continue largely to outnumber the Imperialists. Porfirio Diaz was only one league from the City of Mexico, and the aggregate Liberal force in the immediate vicinity of that city is estimated at nearly 20,000 men. On the 3d of April several Americans were arrested at Bagdad and taken prisoners to Matamoros. They had attempted to land at an irregular point, and were fired upon by the Mexican guard, whom they at once assaulted in return.

PUEBLA BY DIAZ. WASHINGTON, April 7.-Gentlemen here, well i nformed on Mexican affairs, disbelieve the report, by way of Vera Cruz, of Gen. Escobedo's defeat. The following is an extract from a letter received in Washington to-day, dated Vera Cruz, March 22:

THE SIEGE OF VERA CRUZ-PROBABLE CAPTULE OR

The Liberals are in full force around the city. They are awaiting the arrival of their artillery with which to as-sault the city, and it cannot be long before it will be occupied by them. They approach at night to within 40 yards of the fortifications. The Imperial Commissioner at Puebla leaves by this steamer (Afabama), and this shows how little confidence the people have in the con-cess of the Empire. Passengers from the interior report that Gen. Diaz was attacking the City of Puebla, being already in possession of the outer works and the greater part of the city. The Imperialists were reduced to the been captured, and Gen. Diaz will be left free to march on the City of Mexico, where he had already a large per-tion of his army in good position, so you may expect to hear of the capture of Mexico, even before the army of Maximilian is defeated at Queretaro, as everybody ex-

A SLOOP SUNK IN THE NORTH RIVER-THE CREW SAVED.

Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, a sloop with a deck-load of coal-tar, sprung a leak in the North River, opposite the Pavonia Ferry, and was sunk. The River, opposite the Favonia Ferry, and was sunk. The pilot of the ferry-boat Susquehannah noticed that they essel was in a sinking condition and, halling those on board, offered to take them in tow, but they refused assistance. Soon after the vessel gave a lurch which shifted the carge, and finding that she was sinking a signal of distress was holsted, and the auchor was thrown over. The weight of the anchor caused the sloop to go down how first, leaving the stern out. The crew, consisting of four men, effected their escape in the small boat, and a Newfoundiand dog, left behind, swam ashore. The name of the vessel could not be ascertained.

The brig Hound, which came ashore on the beach at Near Rockaway a week since, went to pieces during the blow of Friday the 5th. She was from Jamaica, W. F. laden with rum, logwood, and molasses. Hardly one-fourth of the cargo was saved, and that in a damaged condition.

for the purpose of throwing the train off. A suspicious looking man in a meadow near by was suspected of being the guilly person, and was arrested and brought to this city. He admitted having done the deed, but declines to
